

TIM WARNER

Mr. Warner currently serves as President and Chief Operating Officer of Cinemark USA, Inc., headquartered in Plano, TX. Prior to his current position, he was President of Cinemark International for over 10 years where he was responsible for leading Cinemark's international growth efforts.

Headquartered in Plano, Texas, Cinemark is one of the leading exhibition companies in the world with operations in 12 international countries and 38 states in the United States. Cinemark operates 408 theatres and 4,665 screens. Cinemark's Internationals focus is primarily in Mexico, Central and South America.

Prior to joining Cinemark, Warner was well-known throughout the industry as the CEO of NATO of California/Nevada and the General Chairman of NATO/ShoWest, the largest convention in the world devoted exclusively to all aspects of the motion picture industry. Warner's 1989-1995 reign saw NATO/ShoWest evolve from a regional confab to a convention routinely converged upon by motion picture professionals from all over the world.

Mr. Warner was born and raised in Butte, Montana and began his exhibition career in Butte, Montana in 1956 at Fox-Intermountain Theatres. Following a two-year stint as theatre manager and city manager for National General, Warner in 1969 joined Theatre Operators, Inc. of which he was part owner. He progressed to President of the organization. In 1973, he started a second company, Warner Marketing Film Buying which bought film for independently owned theatres. Theatre Operators Inc. was acquired in 1988 by Chicago-based Excellence Theatres, which employed Warner as a senior executive until he left for Los Angeles to become CEO of the National Association of Theatre Owners of California and General Chairman of NATO/ShoWest.

Tim resides in Dallas, Texas and is married to Windy Warner. He has two children, Kristina and Tim Jr. and three grandchildren.
